

“EDUCATION - THE CHALLENGE OF THE LATER YEARS”
No. 2014 -1-PL01-KA204-003408

SURVEY REPORT

PARTICIPANTS PROFILES	Mainly women, living in towns with 20-100,000 residents, 60-70 years old. Many of them haven't a computer at home, but have access to the Internet at home.
SURVEY ANSWERS	Most of them are not involved in any education or training program and they think to not look for an education or training program in the future for themselves. Most of them should appreciate educational support materials. For them the main reason for looking for an education or training programme is a better quality of life. The topics in which they are more interested are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Health and Wellbeing, sport, diet and health food (high need) • Cross cultural and diversity training (moderate need) • Computer and technology skills (moderate need) • Environmental awareness (moderate need) • Foreign language training (moderate need) • Interpersonal Skills (Emotional Intelligence) (moderate need) It's very important that more education/ training programs are available in their own town In their opinion the most relevant barrier for people over the age of 60 accessing education and training is the Lack of information about education opportunities.

	The educational needs for them have this grade of relevance: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Health (coping with health problems, obtain information)2. Recreation and Entertainment (developing new interests, but also existing)3. Topics related to "life" (dealing with financial affairs of succession, legal)4. Knowledge and technical skills (e.g. computer skills; using technology)

